Diversity and Inclusion

Our commitment to diversity and inclusion is rooted in the belief that multiple points of view, life experiences, ethnicities, cultures and belief systems are essential to academic excellence. This means you'll find lots of ways to get comfortable outside of your comfort zone.

Take a Break

There's lots to do on campus and beyond. Explore:

- > An on-campus ice-skating pavilion and ropes course.
- > Plays and concerts, many of which feature Syracuse University students.
- > Festivals throughout the year, including Syracuse Winterfest, CNY Irish Festival, Syracuse Fashion Week and the Crawfish Festival.

“Everyone—from resident advisors to faculty—makes a student feel welcomed here.
It’s amazing how they become more and more like your family.”

“I know a lot of students are afraid to leave their comfort zone. Walking on a new path by yourself is not an easy thing, but you may like it and discover something really different.”

Yaqi Kang '18, international relations and economics

Yaqi came to Syracuse from Quanzhou, China. She currently serves as vice president and branding director at Global China Connection.

Success Beyond Syracuse

Opportunities to Discover

Through immersive experiences such as internships in Syracuse and at our centers in New York City, Los Angeles and Washington, D.C., as well as abroad, you'll apply classroom learning to real-world settings.

- > Spend the summer in New York City focusing on all aspects of modern development, combining real estate, architecture, finance, accounting, and entrepreneurship and emerging enterprises.
- > Work with the broadcasting crews on live athletic events on the ACC Network.
- > Partner with community organizations to learn firsthand how nonprofit organizations, offices of elected officials and government agencies work.

Earning Potential

With an average early career salary of over $54,033 (USD)* and four out of five graduates reporting high career satisfaction, our graduates are engaging their education and flourishing in their fields.

Class of 2019 data is based on a knowledge rate of 87 percent (2,861 of 3,330 undergraduate degree recipients' responses).*

A Vibrant Midsize City to Explore

Welcome to Syracuse

Syracuse University is located in the heart of New York state and sits atop a hill overlooking the City of Syracuse and Onondaga Lake. With a metropolitan population of nearly 700,000, Syracuse has all the conveniences of a midsize city, within a day's drive from major cities like New York and Boston.

Things to Do

Dine: From Vietnamese to vegan, BBQ to brewpub, Syracuse is full of choices (many offering gluten-free, halal and kosher options and locally sourced ingredients).

Shop: Syracuse is home to the sixth-largest enclosed shopping center in the country—Destiny USA—as well as unique local businesses.

Volunteer: Opportunities close to campus include SUNY Upstate University Hospital and Habitat for Humanity.

Play: Rent a paddle boat at Green Lakes State Park, ski at a nearby mountain, or conquer your fear of heights at the 'Cuse Challenge Ropes Course on campus.

Enjoy Life: Ride the Ferris wheel at the New York State Fair, or visit Beak & Skiff (named Best Apple Orchard by USA Today).

Experience the Seasons: Syracuse has four distinct seasons, each with its own activities and appeal.

A community,
beyond campus.

Athletics and Wellness

Be yourself—and belong to something bigger—it's all part of the Orange experience. Active involvement is the status quo here.

Sports Scene

With seven men's and 11 women's athletic teams, you'll have many opportunities to join your classmates and cheer on the Orange. Syracuse University was recently ranked No. 3 by The Princeton Review for "Students Pack the Stadiums." Named a "top mascot" by ESPN, Otto the Orange joins photo ops at many campus events—you can follow Otto on Twitter or Instagram.

Barnes Center at The Arch

The Barnes Center at The Arch is a state-of-the-art health, wellness and recreation complex, and the hub for student health care and wellness. With programs and facilities that range from rock climbing and a lap pool to pet therapy and esports, the center promotes holistic health and well-being. An integrated health and wellness team and resources are available in one accessible, centralized space on campus.

Alumni

When you graduate from Syracuse University, you join a community of alumni in career fields and locations around the globe. From the moment you set foot on campus until long after you walk the stage, you're part of something bigger that belongs to us all.

Powerful Networks

Syracuse alumni are at work in some of the world's leading organizations. From newsrooms to classrooms, laboratories to boardrooms, you'll find someone who bleeds orange.

Career Services will connect you with alumni who can serve as mentors, helping you gather information and insights on career paths and the transition from college.

Notable Alumni

Our alumni have been making their mark on the world since the University's founding in 1870. Whether in the arts, entertainment, journalism, business, law, human services, or anything in between, our students have consistently gone on to gain national and international acclaim for their accomplishments.

Admissions and Financing Your Education

Applying for Admission

Syracuse University uses the Common Application exclusively. You'll apply directly to one of the University's schools and colleges or to a dual/combined program within two colleges.

Application Deadlines*

- > Early Decision: Nov. 15
- > Regular Decision: Jan. 1
- > Spring Admission (first-year or transfer): Nov. 15
- > Transfer Admission (fall): July 1

These are the priority deadlines; however, applications will continue to be accepted on a space-available basis.*

Your application is evaluated based on:

- > Academic performance and standardized test scores (if applicable)*
- > Personal essay
- > Recommendations
- > Audition or portfolio

SAT/ACT scores are not required for students applying for Fall 2021 admission.*

For more information, visit syracuse.edu/admissions/apply.

Admission Information for Students Outside the U.S.

The Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL), International English Language Testing System (IELTS), Cambridge English Language Assessment or Duolingo score is required of all international (non-U.S. citizen) applicants whose native language is not English, whether applying as a first-year or transfer student. If your native language is English, these tests are not required for admission consideration. This requirement may be waived in certain situations, at the discretion of the Admissions Committee.

The SAT/ACT is not required of any student studying outside the U.S. (including U.S. citizens living abroad) and currently enrolled in a school that does not follow the American system of education. SAT Subject Tests are not required. (Note: Prospective Division I student-athletes must take the SAT or ACT in order to meet NCAA eligibility requirements.)

International applicants can be granted conditional admission to Syracuse University if the academic requirements for admission have been met, but there is insufficient English proficiency and/or financial support documentation. Once the conditions are met, the student will be fully admitted on a space-available basis.

Financing Your Education

Typical Expenses for 2020-21

For information on cost of attendance for 2020-21, please visit syracuse.edu/financialaid.

International Students

(Non-U.S. citizens who are not U.S. permanent residents)

Undergraduate applicants are eligible for merit-based scholarships awarded on the basis of exceptional academic and personal achievement. Selection is made by the Office of Admissions, and eligibility is based on academic and personal credentials.

You must provide official documentation stating how expenses will be paid while enrolled at Syracuse University if you need to obtain a student visa. Visit syracuse.edu/admissions/cost-and-aid/apply/international for more information.

U.S. Citizens and Permanent Residents

U.S. citizens and permanent residents, including those living outside the U.S., are eligible to apply for all forms of financial aid. To apply for federal financial aid, file the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). To apply for a Syracuse University Grant, file the CSS/Financial Aid PROFILE. It is important to submit these forms on time, as awards are made on a funds-available basis. Visit syracuse.edu/financialaid for deadline information.
